Chapter 7.
MOORES VS MOORE. WHAT’S IN A NAME?

If one adds back into the month the 11 days that actually occurred but were "discarded" with the making of a newer calendar in 1752, then Reverend Joseph W Dally’s recording of a true birth date of November 15th, 1738 (New Style) for an individual whose name was John Moores, becomes, hypothetically, November 4th, 1738 (Old Style).

From Dally’s ‘Woodbridge and Vicinity, The Story of a New Jersey Township’ (1873):
